The Great 48 Announced!

After months of hard work, the field of 48 Honda Campus All-Star Challenge teams has been finalized. The distribution of teams by division will be announced by early March. Service projects from all institutions that completed Part One qualification are eligible for the community service project grant of $2,000.

Congratulations to all teams as they travel to Pre-NCTs and prepare for HCASC 22 in Orlando!

Black History Month

Every day in February, a different historical figure will be spotlighted as a "Who am I" on the HCASC Facebook page. Take a moment to "like" the page now, to ensure that you receive all the updates. Post your answers on the Wall for a chance at special prizes. You may even learn a fact that can make a difference in Orlando.

Facebook Facelift

Which of your friends is fastest?

Ultimate 10 is the new name for the Facebook game. It features multiple choice questions in a variety of categories. Answer questions, race the clock and share your scores with your Facebook friends.

It's easy to get in the game. Just click over to the HCASC Facebook page, register your email address and start playing. More than 20 games are available now and more are coming every week.
