Playing Drills Using the Database

The webcasts “Setting Up to Play a Game Using the Database” and “Playing Games Using the Database” are pre-requisite for this webcast. Please watch those webcasts first!

In this webcast, “Playing Drills Using the Database,” we will cover:

- Playing Face-Off & Bonus Drills
- Playing Ultimate Challenge Drills

Starting a Drill

From the Main Switchboard, click the icon next to the drill type you wish to play (Face-Offs & Bonuses or Ultimate Challenges).

Playing Face-Off Drills

In this example we're going to play a Face-Off & Bonus Drill. This is what the control screen looks like when you start.

Playing Face-Offs Drills

Drills are played head-to-head with 2 players.

There are 2 ways to play drills:

- Randomly selected categories
- Manually selected categories

Playing Face-Off Drills

All 12 games of campus questions are loaded into the Drill module. Therefore, if you are running a campus tournament, do not to use the drills with players until the tournament is over.

Drills are played head-to-head with 2 players. Start by selecting the names of the players from the drop-down.

There are 2 ways to play drills:

- Randomly selected categories
- Manually selected categories. This allows the coach to select specific categories or subject areas for drills.

Play the 4:00 drill just like rounds in a game. The drill starts when you click the 1st category selected.

After a drill you will be prompted as to whether you wish to play another drill.

Start Drill

- Click the “Start” button after the moderator has read the category title and description.
- Score like any other Ultimate Challenge round.

Playing Ultimate Challenge Drills

- Once the 1st player selects a category, click it to load the category title and description.
- After the moderator reads the category title and description, click the “Start” button (in the scoring section). The 60 second clock will start and the 1st question will be displayed.
- Score as you would any Ultimate Challenge round.

Each player will play 2 Ultimate Challenge categories in a drill.

When you have finished drills, click the “Return to Main Switchboard” button.

To make your drill time worthwhile:

- Use drills to assess players' areas of knowledge.
- Drills test players' game skills and speed of play.
- Keep track of player's performance.

Tips

To make your drill time worthwhile:

- Use drills to assess players' areas of knowledge.
- Drills test players' game skills and speed of play.
- Keep track of player's performance in drills. The current release of the database does not track individual drill results.

That's it for this webcast. If you have any questions, please call or email us. We're happy to help you!
